Planning Lack In Budget Criticized

The board of directors of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association, in the third of its comments on the proposed county 28 cent tax rate increase, today decried the lack of adequate overall capital improvement planning in the preparation of the 1956-57 county budget.

Pointing out that over $2,000,000 of the proposed increase in county expenditures consists of capital outlay and improvement items, the tax group stated that its study had revealed no comprehensive and systematic plan for the acquisition and/or replacement of such capital requirements as land, buildings, office furniture and operational equipment. The lack of such lanning by the county was contrasted with private business where it is a common practice.

"THE DECISIONS made during the past several years have to a marked degree been characterized by an atmosphere of crisis attending justification of facilities and establishing priority of the various acquisitions. This had led to spot financing such items out of annual tax revenues and has resulted in higher tax bills for county citizens."

The Taxpayers' Association has formally and informally requested on several occasions the development of a capital improvement program, but nothing has been forthcoming for over three years.

"THE LACK OF such planning and the inability to relate present projects to known overall future capital needs which could be published and considered by the public has brought about the adoption of higher than necessary tax rates to supply funds.

"With the proper long-range study, these capital expenditures might be derived from other financial resources than the annual general fund and in a manner more equitable and economical for the taxpayers," the directors of the tax group concluded.

Voters Will Decide Fate Of Sewer Bonds, Tuesday

On Tuesday, voters in the Cenral Contra Costa Sanitary District will go to the polls to decide on a $8,900,000 bond issue, to finance an expanded sewer system benefitting nine local communities.

Balloting will be from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. in 11 consolidated precincts.

A majority vote will pass the bonds.

The Committee for Sewers, which has for several weeks decried the shortcomings of the present system, will transport voters to the polls, where they are unable to make it on their own.

The directors of the Sanitary District have said that the bond issue is needed, "to financee expansion and improvement of sewage colection, treatment, and disposal facilities. . . thereby eliminating a serious health menace and avoiding potentially dangerous future health problems of even greater magnitude. . .

"The system constructed to serve 45,000 people now serves 30,000 people. . . must be prepared to serve an ultimate. . . 820,000."

THIS NEARLY one million residents are predicted for Lafayette, Orinda, Moraga, Walnut Creek, parts of Danville and Alamo, Pleasant Hill, Pacheco and parts of Concord.

Support for the bond issue has come from the County Health Department of the State of California Department of Public Health Regional Water Pollution Control Board.

Also the Pleasant Hill Civic Council, the Walnut Creek City Council, Orinda Chamber of Commerce, Orinda Association, Moraga Valley Community Club, the Association for the Progress and Improvement of Contra Costa County, the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, and others.

Here is what the money will do, according to a Sanitary District statement:

"The District's plan provides for the construction of two new major pumping stations to serve the Orinda and Moraga watersheds, new trunk sewers to augment the existing system throughout the Walnut Creek watershed, and in addition provides for future expansion of the sewage system.

"The plan provides for the initial enlargement of the primary treatment and oxidation pond facilities to a capacity of 10 million gallons per day, which will serve a population of 183,000 persons.

"WITH A REALIZATION of that flow, an outfall to Suisun is planned, and the secondary treatment by oxidation ponds will be largely discontinued.

". . . based on anticipated revenue, no further bond financing will be required."

"The selection of the bond issue in amount and method of repayment has been based upon studies made by Brown and Caldwell firm, and by the financial consulting firm of Kaiser and Company."

Why the bond issue should be passed was explained by Dr. H. R. Blum, County Health Officer, recently.

He told The Sun:

"NUMEROUS COMPLAINTS of raw sewage being discharged by the CCCSD sewage system have come to the agencies of the Regional Water Pollution Control Board, the State Health Districts and the County Health Department."

"Some complaints emanated from the Orinda and Moraga pumping stations which spilled into the San Leandro and San Pablo Water Sheds.

"Raw sewage flowing into San Pablo reservoir jeopardized the drinking water of hundreds of thousands of East Bay Municipal Utility district consumers.

"There are periodic overflows of sewage in all points of the District and frequent overflow into the streams of the area including Grayson Creek, Walnut Creek, Tice Creek, Lafayette Creek, San Pablo Creek, Las Trampas Creek and San Leandro Creek.

"The Pacheco area has been flooded on many occasions when the manholes spouted raw sewage. Many people were without toilet facilities.

"The Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill areas have had many overflows due to limited capacity of main trunk lines.

"Even the treatment plant has been completely by-passed during heavy rains and raw sewage was allowed to escape into the bay.

"The sewer bond election has evolved as the means to finance the vitally needed improvements in the CCCSD," Dr. Blum concluded.

SUPPORT FOR THE bond issue has been widespread.

In an appeal to Pleasant Hill residents to vote "yes" on the sewer bonds, Tom Shreve, president of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council and co-chairman of the Committee for Sewers, pointed to endorsements of the bond issue by the Pleasant Hill Chamber of

Boy Marauders Apprehended by Canyon School

Two teenage boys from Alameda, possibly implicated in a murder in Oakland, were apprehended by Moraga Fire Chief Al Baitx Monday after they had been spotted setting a cooking fire behind the Canyon School.

BAITX WAS CALLED to the scene about 6:30 p.m. by volunteer fireman Paul Foster. Foster had been alerted by a group of boys who were chased from the school site by the teenagers, 15 and 14, and the .22 rifle they carried.

Upon being turned over to the Contra Costa sheriff's office, the youths admitted to leaving a trail of marauding and a possible murder behind them.

The boys said they had:

1. RUN AWAY from their Alameda homes with a .22 rifle and a scabbard knife.

2. Stolen three bicycles, abandoning two of them near the Posey tube, and shoving the third into a ravine "somewhere in the hills."

3. Shot up street lights, mail boxes and other objects while walking through the Oakland hills.

4. ENTERED THE patio of an Oakland home, shooting out the patio light, and decided not to enter the house after fruitless attempts.

5. Entered another Oakland yard, at the home of William Giacometti, with thoughts of break-in in mind. Here, they said, they were spotted by a man peering over a vine-covered backyard fence nearby, and one of the boys claimed he took a shot at the onlooker. He thought he hit the man, the youth said, because he fell to the ground.

Parents Warned Of Contaminated Water Sprinklers

Six local boys became ill yesterday afternoon after drinking water from a sprinkler at St. Mary's College.

The boys were watching a practice session of the San Francisco Forty-Niners, profesional football team currently practicing on the Galloping Gael campus.

County health authorities were notified and parents are warned not to allow children to drink out of sprinklers, but to use only drinking fountains which are located throughout the campus.

Irrigation water is drawn from the lake which at present is contaminated.

Transit District Asks For Nominations for Directors

The East Bay Transit District Organization Committee set August 20 as the deadline for the election of a "citizens committee" to nominate candidates for directors of the proposed Alameda-Contra Costa county transit district, in an attempt to consolidate the Transit District election with the November 6 general election.

The move was made, at a meeting held Wednesday in Oakland, "in the interest of economy and to give the greatest number of people the earliest possible opportunity to express themselves on the area's number one problem—transit."

Chairman Clair W. MacLeod reported that 10 cities, including Concord, had formally expressed their support of the Transit District proposal and had requested an early election on the matter.

The committee unanimously approved a request to the mayors of 16 incorporated cities in the two counties and the two Boards of Supervisors to join in appointing a citizens committee to nominate candidates for directors of the proposed district.

The cities will be asked to appoint three members each and the supervisors, five each.

The committee also passed a resolution urging the Alameda County Board of Supervisors (which as the largest county, population-wise, is required by the Transit Law to set the election) to consolidate the election with the November 6 election.

State Senator Arthur H. Breed, author of the Transit District Law, Fred Maggiora, Oakland City Councilman and a member of San Francisco Mayor George Christopher's Intra-County Advisory Committee for Rapid Transit, Deputy District Attorney Charles J. Wright of Richmond, Oakland Deputy City Attorney Robert Nisbet and Sherwood Swan, Edgar L. Buttner and A. Hubbard Moffitt Jr., who with Chairman MacLeod are members of the Bay Area Transit Commission and L. C. Keeding of El Cerrito, M. M. Snodgrass of Richmond and W. A. Sparling, General Manager of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, were among those who participated in the discussions at the organization's meeting.

Chairman MacLeod set August 27, 12 p.m., at the Athens Club, Oakland, as the time and place for the committee's next meeting.

State Sets Oct. 3 Freeway Hearing Despite Warning

The Moraga Valley route of the Shepherd Canyon freeway will be the subject of a public protest hearing October 3 at 1:30 p.m. in the Miramonte High School auditorium.

But the Director of Public Works, Frank Durkee, has warned that such a meeting may be premature.

At hearings last week of the California Highway Commission in San Francisco, at which the commisison set the October date, Durkee stated that there are a number of state road projects in Contra Costa County that will be built before this one.

"I'M WONDERING if this is ready for a public hearing," he said.

The discussion came about after State Division of Highways Engineer George T. McCoy recommended a route through the heart of Moraga Valley as the final link in the proposed freeway that will run from Oakland to Lafayette.

The State-endorsed route near St. Mary's is 4.5 miles, McCoy contended, and would cost $10,750,000 for construction and right of way. Two of the alternate routes would each cost about $1,000,000 more, he estimated.

B. W. Booker, district highway engineer, had said different groups are protesting each of the four proposed routes.

HE STATED he understood that fog was a detriment at Moraga Village, where only a fraction of a mile north the area was relatively free of fog. He said the fog hazard was "about the same" atop Redwood Canyon at the site of either of two proposed tunnels.

A tunnel, he said, costs about $1,000 per lane foot, and the tunnel running east and west, as endorsed by McCoy, would be only 1,570 feet long as against 2,150 feet for a tunnel on a route paralleling the old Sacramento Northern railway, which runs more north and south over the crest of the hills.

Orinda residents and the Utah Construction Compan, which owns land in Moraga Valley, have argued that the freeway should go around the southern edge of the valley so it will not decrease land values by cutting the Moraga residential area in two.

THE PRESENT population in the valley along the recommended route is about 500, McCoy told the highway commission, but it is expected to increase to around 50,000 in the near future.

Durkee told the commission that the route was "quite controversial" and would be bitterly opposed if an early hearing date were set. He indicated that the Utah Construction Company would fight the final adoption of the freeway link through the valley.

"Utah hasn't convinced me with the information they've given so far," Booker commented. "If they have any objections, they should come forward with them."

DESPITE DURKEE'S warning the commission set the date and said the hearing would be conducted at the high school.

McCoy had urged the commission to adopt the final route at an early date, so the city can be laid out. The freeway should be planned so the builders can take its route into consideration, he said.

The state's top highway engineer then stated that he was "tired of being the whipping boy" in community controversies over highway routes.

"I FIRMLY believe that in our interstate highway system construction that we should start and cary through in an orderly manner," he continued.

"If we run into a stone wall we should simply back off rather than butt our heads against that wall. We will hedgehop or go around the hot-spot," he said.

McCoy made clear the pace of future road building cannot be slowed down by bickering between local factions over routes. He called on communities to solve their differences before construction is scheduled so that road building can proceed swiftly.

2 Boys Steal Car to Watch 49er Practice

Two 15 ear old Lafayette boys, who stole a car to get to Moraga to watch the San Francisco Forty Niners football team at practice, have been cited to apear with their parents before county juvenile authorities.

Mrs. Viola Mueller, 3503 Moraga Boulevard, told sheriff's deputies that the home of her son-in-law, Earl W. Threlfall, 3348 North Lucille Lane, was broken into and an auto stolen during the family's absence.

A neighborhood youngster reported seeing the car leave and identified the driver as one of the youths.

Deputies said one of the suspects admited breaking into the Threlfall garage, taking the house and auto keys from the home and then taking the car.

His Sunday afternoon companion and he then drove to St. Mary's College to watch the football practice. His companion has been cited as an accomplice.

The boys abandoned the car near the Burton school in Lafayette on Sunday evening, before its theft had been discovered.

McCosker Crews View Quarry Site

Crews from A. J. McCosker Freeway Enterprises Inc. were sent out this week to "look over" the proposed 320 acre site in Redwood Canyon, according to McCosker.

"Although no definite plans have been drawn up, a few of the men went out to look over the site and make initial study of it," said McCosker to The Sun.

"We really haven't had much time at all to think about extra curricular matters such as Redwood Canyon. We're trying to keep ahead of our regular construction schedule and we just haven't had the time to really plan out the Redwood Quarry.

"There are quite a few people who seem to object to the quarry but I really can't see where it will interfere with anyone out there. There is an 800 foot hill surrounding the quarry. You can't even hear a tractor for very far in that area. As for the matter of explosives and blasting, its just like fire crackers. You can either use big ones or little ones," McCosker continued.

"We, if we do blast, will not use anything which would jeperdize homes in the area. The dust caused by a small blast is so negligible it would be like a car spinning its wheels on a dirt road.

"Once the people understand just what our operations will be, I doubt if there will be any opposition," he concluded.

Several protestors, including the Orinda Association and other homeowners' groups in the area, have demanded recently that McCosker be made to show proof that the rock for which the quarry would be operated is valuable and worthy of operation.

Rotary Hears District Head

Governor of Rotary International District 157 Charles E. Glick addressed members of the Orinda Rotary Club at its last Wednesday meeting.

Glick is making his annual tour of 50 Rotary clubs in his district. While here, he met with Ramsay Underwood, local Rotary president and Dr. Harold C. Bryant, secretary, and other officers and committee chairmen.

Teen-Agers, Need a Job? Use a Sun Classified Ad!

Free work wanted ads are being offered teen-agers of Central Contra Costa County in the Classified Section of The Sun until August 17, Herman Silverman, editor and publisher announced this week.

The ad will appear in all five Sun publications — The Orinda Sun, Lafayette Sun, Walnut Creek Sun, Pleasant Hill Sun and Sun Shopping News.

And it seems evident from past experience that results will be just as gratifying as ever. Many pleased parents have told The Sun that their children have received tremendous response to these ads, run as a service to the community.

And many residents have seemingly been equally pleased to find such a wealth of talent and ability in their own back yards.

The Sun has sponsored the program in order to encourage teenagers, who often find time heavy on their hands during the summer, to take this opportunity to turn leisure hours into profitable endeavor.

The conditions remain the same. A teenager must bring the ad copy to any Sun office, 1000 Orchard Road, Lafayette; 1320 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, or 12 Vivian Drive, Pleasant Hill, by 3 p.m. Monday of the week of publication.

Previously the ads have been run for two weeks, but until August 17 the ads will appear one time only.

So if you are a teenager, take advantage of this program through August 17, and if you are a local resident and need one of those irksome jobs taken care of look in The Sun classified pages under "work wanted" and find some competent and eager help waiting for you.

Mrs. James Named Church Director

Mrs. Muriel James has been named as director of education at the Orinda Community Church.

Mrs. James has served as supervisory fellow at the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley for the past year. She also was director of Christian education at Montclair Presbyterian church in Oakland and a leader of the Presbyterian church, U.S.A., Northern California area.

Mrs. James is a graduate of the University of California and is completing work for a Bachelor of Divinity Degree at Church Divinity School of the Pacific.

The Reverend Chauncey E. Blossom, minister at Orinda, said that with the addition of Mrs. James to the church staff, greater emphasis can be placed upon Christian Education at the Community church.

Snake-in-Hedge Rattles no More

A community of rattlesnakes seems to have settled near the Monticello Road home of Minett Hallmark—but its citizenry was decreased by one last Tuesday when the Lafayette Fire Department came to the rescue.

Mrs. Hallmark, whose home at 1230 Monticello Road has been plagued by the reptiles for a long time, noticed the rattler coiled in a hedge near her patio when her cat showed sudden alarm and fear as he strayed near the hedge.

Although she and her husband had disposed of many venemous visitors in the past themselves, Mrs. Hallmark decided that for the safety of her children, the snake-in-the-hedge called for reinforcements.

A call to the fire department brought Capt. Edward Allen to the home around noon Tuesday. A heavy bombardment with shovels and hoes soon brought the snake's demise.

But, said Mrs. Hallmark, "It was quite a battle while it lasted."

Public to Hear Budget Monday

A public hearing on the Orinda School District budget that will cost taxpayers 70 cents per $100 assessed valuation more this year than last will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Pine Grove School.

The 1956-57 school budget totals $841,211 and calls for a $1.81 tax levy. Last year's budget was $692,615 and drew $1.11 in taxes.

School sperintendent Joseph L. Sheaff, who will attend the meeting, has attested that school expansions and a rise in assessed valuation in the district from $15 million to $21 million are the two major causes for the tax increase.

Sheaff will give budget and tax details at Monday's hearing.

Largest Budget Yet Proposed Hits Million Mark

An Acalanes High School District budget $300,000 higher than in the last fiscal year indicated a tax increase from $1.54 per $100 assessed valuation to an estimated $1.90, it was learned at a Board of Trustee hearing Wednesday night.

Figures of Ross Reagan, district business manager, suggested that the total operating budget for 1956-57 be $1,267,150. Last year the total was $959,666, which was close to the amount actually spent.

THIS IS THE first time that the Acalanes budget has surpassed the $1 million mark.

Reagan explained that the increases are mostly due to the expansion within the district, which is anticipated at 23 per cent in 12 months. Also, 22 new teachers have been hired.

The building fund this year will amount to $1,311,310 to be raised by the sale of bonds, authorized by the district voters recently.

This comes under the $1¼ million voted. The rest of the bonds will be sold in future years.

The money will go for a building program, which is calculated to keep the facilities of the district equal to the task of educating the hundreds of new students.

THE GREATEST effort will be bent towards Miramont High School, which will assume for the first time the full burden of educating all Orinda young men and women.

All Orinda freshmen will go to Miramonte, rather than to both Miramonte and Acalanes High, as in the past.

The money will provide the following new facilities at Miramonte: eight additional classrooms, furniture and equipment for them, girls' athletic field, but service facilities and parking.

Also baseball field, bleachers, new multi-use building, four tennis courts, stage equipment.

ACALANES HIGH will get four additional classrooms, additional space for the girls' and boys' locker rooms, new maintenance shop and outside bleachers.

Las Lomas is to enlarge the cafeteria, have two additional classrooms, a new musical building, improve the bridge at the entrance and build additional bleachers, fencing and equipment.

Last year's general fund tax rate was $1.263 per $100, and the bond fund tax rate was 28.5 cents, totalling $1,548.

This year's estimated general fund rate is $1.62, and the bond fund tax roughly estimated at 30 cents.

HERE IS the operating budget, as submitted to the trustees for their revision: administration, $68,240; instruction, $930,900; auxiliary services, $13,250; operation of school plant, $132,980; maintenance of school plant, $53,285.

Also capital outlay, $327,280 (to go for schools' expansion) food and services, $2500; services, $10, 290.

The new high school planned for Tice Valley was not figured in the 1956-57 budget, and will probably be taken into consideration in 1957-58, or later, Reagan said.

49ers Robbed During Scrum

While members of the San Francisco Forty Niners football team were having a practice session on the athletic field at St. Mary's College in Moraga Wednesday afternoon, a thief rifled the players' lockers for cash that they had left there.

"Someone apparently got the keys to the locker room and there found the keys to the dormitories," Inspector Norman Wilson said.

The players found that a total of over $300 in cash was missing from their lockers and from their rooms in the dormitories.

Glamor, Prizes Await Girl Who Becomes Queen

Valuable gifts and a possible bid to fame and fortune is proving the perfect formula in attracting a host of lovely candidates for the September Walnut Festival Queen Contest, say officials.

Candidates who have filed their intentions to enter the Walnut Festival Queen Contest have found it impossible to resist the beautiful wardorbes, jewelry, free modeling and charm course, and other gifts that will go to the winner, they add.

In addition to the gifts there is also the honor of being the official hostess for the four-day Walnut Festival, plus nightly on-stage appearances with the big name Hollywood stars that will be a feature of this year's Festival.

IN PLANNING THIS year's Walnut Festival Queen Contest, the Festival Association eliminated ticket selling chores that was the determining factor in choosing a queen in previous contests.

Simple entrance requirements for this year's Walnut Festival specify the Queen will be chosen for beauty of face and figure, poise and personality only.

The elimination of the ticket selling has brought the Walnut Festival Queen Contest within range of more lovely applicants than any other previous Walnut Festival celebration. There are no talent requirements to be met by the contestants.

Public appearances and invitations to play an important role in civic functions and service club luncheons, climaxed by riding in the place of honor on the Walnut Festival float at Sunday's gigantic parade, will make this year's queen contestants the most widely publicized and best known girls in Contra Costa County.

THE WALNUT Festival Queen committee urges all girls interested in entering the Queen contest to file their applications at an early date.

The Walnut Festival Queen contest is open to any girl 17 to 21 years of age living within a ten-mile radius of Walnut Creek. Queen candidates will be carefully screened to ten finalists.

Final selection of the winning Queen will be by popular vote at a colorful fashion show to be held during the opening September 20 ceremonies.

The Queen contestants will model sports, formal and beach wear supplied by leading Walnut Creek merchants. The two girls who come closest to winning the coveted Festival Queen role will act as the Queen's attendants at all Festival functions.

Application blanks with a simple set of rules and regulations governing the Walnut Festival Queen contest are now available at the Walnut Festival office, 1640 Main Street. Applications are mailed on a telephone request to YEllowstone 5-3993.

Cat Club Holds Monthly Meeting

The Mt. Diablo Cat Club held its monthly meeting at the Pleasant Hill Recreation Center.

At the last meeting of the club, 30 members attended and heard a talk on "How To Raise a Show Cat" by Mrs. Clifford A. Patch of Concord. Mrs. Patch showed a prize winning cage used at a recent cat show to the audience.

A rummage sale was held during the evening, with Mrs. Maxine Hall in charge. Proceeds of the sale will go toward the cat show promoted by the club, which will be the first show of this kind in Contra Costa County.

Mrs. Isabelle Meader, well-known cat judge of Castro Valley joined the club, and visitors from San Francisco and San Rafael were also present.

Sheriff's deputies received a call from Dick Mathis, 969 Moraga Road, last Sunday afternoon, reporting an entry had been made to his Camera and Stationary Shop.

Commerce and all local Pleasant Hill improvement associations.

"With the complete and competent study of our Central Contra Costa County sewage collection, treatment and disposal problem by Brown and Caldwell, Pleasant Hill's last doubts concerning our sewer needs and the necessity for the bond issue have been resolved," Shreve said.

CHARLES HAHN, Sewer Committee member and a director of the Lafayette Improvement Association and the Reliez Valley Improvement Association declared that the endorsements of these two associations are indicative of the solid support of the bond issue in the Lafayette area.

"Our concern now is not lack of public support of the proposed bonds but lack of votes at the polls which may permit a dissident minority to block a project vital to our area's good health and intelligent development," Hahn said.

In Danville, Mrs. Noble Dorris, business manager of the Southern Utility District, declared that informed citizens in her area are generally in favor of the bonds.

But she expressed alarm at an inaccurate undercurrent of feeling that the passage of the bonds will not be of direct benefit to Danville.

"ALL CITIZENS must realize that the future of our area is, in large part, dependent upon our ability to assure that our good health is not endangered by poor sewage collection, treatment, and disposal," she said.

Mayor E .C. (Ted) Counter of Walnut Creek, serving as co-chairman with Tom Shreve of the Committee for Sewers, said members of the Council of Walnut Creek are unanimous in their support of the Sewer Bond issue.

The bond issue has also been strongly endorsed by the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce.

"Passage of this bond issue will cure critical threats to health in the City of Walnut Creek, while at the same time reducing taxes," Counter stated.

IN ORINDA the sewer bonds have won formal support of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, the Orinda Civic Affairs Committee, and the Orinda Association and are strongly supported by leaders in the other Orinda organizations.

Joseph R. Longacre, spokesman for the Orinda Fact Finders, stated that there can be no division of opinion regarding the sewer bonds in Orinda and that all of the community's organizations must work in concert to assure bond passage.

Gene Estes, speaking for the Orinda Association stressed protection of children's health and lower taxes as the two reasons for near unanimous support of the bonds in Orinda, and urged all residents to go to the polls and vote on Tuesday, August 7.

The Moraga Valley Community Club, in a statement sent to each of the club's members and signed by Eva Thune, Geraldine Tarpley and Harold Parker, strongly urged support of the bonds by all Moraga voters.

Roadside 'Body' Is a Real Doll

Early Saturday morning, Phil Hunter of 20 Sunrise Hill, Orinda, reported to the sheriff's office that there appeared to be a body of a young boy along side the road near the Orinda Country Club.

Investigating officers arrived in their patrol car in time to see three youths running from the area. Further investigation by the officers showed that the "body" was a large doll, covered with catsup.

Summer Program Ending-- But Excitement's High!

By ANNE HOWARD

The next-to-last week of the Diablo Junior Museum summer program has whizzed by, bringing more and more hours of wonderful activity to its participants. This was field trip week all around!

Erv Metzgar led his older classes on the Piedmont Trail, where they observed redwoods and such . . . That was the last trip his class will take and one of the most interesting.

Down at Walnut Creek School, visitors and latecomers found the classrooms empty and deserted of all but animals. Not a sign of life!

Each day the three classes combined into one and were driven to Tilden Park's Jewel Lake Nature Trail. There instructor Bill Gripp and assistants Larkie Barnes and myself divided the group and toured them over the mile long trail through the special wildlife area.

The trail has been designed by the park rangers to cover almost every part of the nature area, so that all kinds of plants, animals and birds may be seen on the walk. The trail was the first field trip for the younger classes and were they fascinated!

Some of the highpoints for them included the sight of a huge red-tailed hawk's nest high in a eucalyptus and the sight of the soaring hawk, the ducks and wild things seen near the lake's edge, the fallen tree with distinct teeth marks of a resident golden beaver, and the wild blackberry vines which offered a little refreshment along the way.

THERE ARE LOTS and lots of things to see and do and each place is more interesting than the next. Seen with eyes "a-popping" and mouth agape at something as we went were Adrienne Brown, Tommy Disselhorst, Peter Burges, Mike Odel, John Louvau, Susan Mortenson, Ricky Southworth. Barry Akins, Ray Kanes, Lynne Staley, Helen Anne Wintz, Bob Urhausen, Steven Romines, and Ann Stumpf.

Thanks so much to the weary mothers who carted loads of chattering kids back and forth to the park!

THINGS WERE BUSY down at school too. Big preparations for the Science Fair coming up August 11 as the special climax to the summer classes are coming along in a hurry! Every animal merits a sprucing up, and there are cages to be painted and exhibits to be designed and enough work to keep a crew busy for a month!

Animals are still going out two by two to members of each class. Some of the lucky ones lately have been Carol Beem, Doug Frediani, Melody Whitcomb, Stevie Burke, David Jones, Terry Quinan, Lewie Stark, and Gunar Leipins.

Each one of them is having a wonderful week tending to the care, feeding and amusement of a white rat, gopher snake, guineo pig, homing pigeon or some other favorite creature of their choice . . . When all the animals are finally collected together and living proudly in their newly painted homes, they'll be some exhibit for everyone to see!

IT'S INTERESTING to the staff at the Museum how many pairs of sisters and brothers we have in the classes. And it's a real job to straighten out their names! They include Bill and Diane Peterson, Jimmy and Cathy Gammon, Bruce and Eric Neighbor, Bruce and Doug Frediani, Jimmy and Terry Iovin, Steve and Jeff Heustis, Keith and Ken Rosen, and Mary and John Hammond.

In the animal room things are always hopping. Ma Possum has decided it's about time her babies roamed the world for themselves, and one by one they are trying their legs and looking around with newly opened big eyes. Let's hope they like it!

A new resident of the Diablo-home-for-anything-interesting is Horace O'Really, a monster black and white rabbit. He's tame as he can be and everyone loves him on sight! The first batch of young white rats are old enough to go out by themselves now, and the second ones are just beginning to look around

We were more surprised by mamma rat, though, when she ate the big card in front of her cage that described her and her fellows. That's destroying evidence!

A big job for this week has been to sort out all of last week's project — the pressed flowers. After five days or so of being squashed flat in the overflowing presses they are really done and ready to go home. And they cover tables and tables in the classroom. There are lots of wonderful specimens and some nobody would ever think could come from a school playing field . . .

JUST A NOTICE: There WILL be classes as usual next week, at the Walnut Creek School. The older classes finish this week, but the younger ones have the extra time to prepare for the Science Fair and to work on their projects.

See you all there!

Properties Come, Go . . . Dollar Ranch Is Next

By BILL HAYWARD

Information concerning the development of the Dollar properties in Tice Valley is still sparce at this writing . . . plans are still on the drawing board with recommendations to be made regarding the layout of the 2100 acre rancho.

If this property is annexed to the City of Walnut Creek, and it no doubt will be, things should certainly jump in that area. More on this development to follow. A 20-acre school site has been provided at the Dollar property.

WALNUT CREEK GOSSIP — we will soon have a Motor Vehicle Office just north of walnut property on the corner of Second and Main. This is the result of a long chain of efforts by several of our citizenry to provide this service in a handy location.

According to City Attorney John Nejedly the Master Plan bond sale will be realized, we hope, in the East as the result of his personal trip there along with Mayor Counter. This should put the wheels in action to see some of the new by-pass streets actually under construction. One of the priority items is the by-pass along the west boundary of the Sacramento Northern Railroad tracks. This should ease the Main Street cramps . . .

Actually nearing completion is the Green Village Road-Ygnacio Valley Road widening which is 40% completed . . . Another funnel that will be removed allowing Ygnacio Valley commuters to get across Walnut Creek in the east-west direction without fighting the light at Ygnacio and Main . . .

Speaking of Ygnacio Valley, Ganley Construction Company has just received approval on Oak Grove Manor Unit No. 4 and will start construction next week on forty very saleable homes among the walnut trees.

There is still no decision from the Veteran's Administration about locating the much discussed hospital near Walnut Creek. Three local sites are still being considered . . .

FOUR CORNERS. The area east of four corners has been recently annexed to the Flood Control District. A $20,000 canal will be constructed to take care of excess surface water to protect that area from future water problems.

PLEASANT HILL will soon have Shamrock Village. It will be located just north of Strandwood on the west side of Pleasant Hill Road and will include some thirty seven attractive homes. The price bracket has not yet been established. This subdivision is being developed by G. M. Olney of the O. B. and G. Construction Company, Berkeley, whose name is also linked with the Bishop Ranch in San Ramon.

RUMORS ARE FLYING . . . A Peninsula development company has "sunk" in to Pleasant Hill and quiety purchased the Rogers property west of Pleasant Hill Road comprising almost 100 acres between the Wedgewood and Charleton subdivisions. This is the last large chunk in that close-in area. More on this item next week.

DANVILLE is watching the firm of Christie and Likens as they plan a development on the Bardwell property near Danville Estates and adjacent to the Rutherford Ranch. Thirty acres will be subdivided for home sites. It is expected that they will try to get quarter acre zoning. Sounds like good planning to me. It is believed that Christie and Likens operations now encompass a quarter of a million dollars worth of property — maybe more.

ORINDA ACTIVITIES — Birds of a feather flock together at Bryant Corners with a new look at the old Orinda Roost. Kurtz Realty Company managed by Bob Gaines with Don Monroe and Leonard Arscott occupying one third of the remodeled building.

Another section is occupied by three brokers, Francis Lax, Helen Kleeberger and Jean Siebert. The final third, and probably the most famous of all is occupied by the broker who disappeared from the Lafayette scene to re-establish at this address with associate Lewis Reark. This is none other than Charles Harvey. Success to all of you at this new promising location.

Cars To Detour Thomson Road

Motorists in Lafayette will no longer have access to Thomson Road but will instead have to use a side detour road, the Gordon H. Ball Construction Company announced Monday.

The portion of the street running from the Chapel in the Valley mortuary to the new freeway is closed so that the construction outfit might make the necessary repairs before the street is transformed into a part of the freeway.

The detour road runs parallel to Thomson Road. Motorists will be guided by detour signs.

11 Air Officers Get Bank Boost

Promotions in rank came to 11 local Air Force Reserve Officers of the 2562nd Air Reserve Center in Oakland, it was announced recently by Lt. Colonel Bill R. Brown, commandant of the center.

Promotions for Lafayette officers came to:

Vernon L. Kerns, 1530 Reliez Valley Road, major to lieutenant colonel; Charles A. Bell, 982 Carol Lane, captain to major; John A. Lundholm, 922 Diablo Drive, first lieutenant to captain.

Orindans receiving promotions were:

Wilfred N. Ball Jr., 2 Donna Maria Way, major to lieutenant colonel; Allen F. Thor, 12 Park Lane, and Charles H. Currier, 33 Valley Drive, captain to major; Paul J. Arenson, 52 Dolores Way and Harry L. Fledderman Jr., 10 Los Conejos, second to first lieutenant.

Promoted officers from Pleasant Hill are:

Judson E. Krueger Jr., 29 Bruce Court, captain to major; Donald L. Glaze, 1894 Eloise Avenue, second to first lieutenant.

Ralph M. Kergan, 2952 Vessing Road, Walnut Creek, was promoted from first lieutenant to captain.

Christian Science

The fact that all things are possible to God will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Spirit" at services Sunday in Churches of Christ, Scientist, 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

Scriptural selections to be read from the King James Version of the Bible will include Paul's statement to the Philippians (4-13): "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (182:30-4):

"To admit that sickness is a condition over which God has no control, is to presuppose that omnipotent power is powerless on some occasions. The law of Christ, or Truth, makes all things possible to Spirit; but the so-called laws of matter would render Spirit of no avail, and demand obedience to materialistic codes, thus departing from the basis of one God, one lawmaker."

Sanitary Bond Questions Posed

The following questions are those which have been most frequently asked of board members and officials of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District regarding the $8,900,000 bond issue which will come before the voters Tuesday.

As a public service, The Sun is printing these questions with the answers as compiled by board members and employees of the district.

Q. The information I have read about the bond issue indicates that the tax rate for sewer service will go down with the passage of the bond issue. How is this possible?

A. The district is making capital improvements as Stage I in the Brown and Caldwell Report from a capital fund being created by the difference between the actual cost of maintenance and operation in the district and the 60 cent maximum permitted by law.

The amount required for maintenance and operation in 1956 was 27.3 cents. The balance of 32.7 cents created this capital fund. With the pasage of the bond issue, the need for the continuation of a capital fund is gone and similarly the tax rate for the creation of that fund is gone.

The peak tax rate for the redemption of bonds would occur the first year of issue and the tax rate for servicing the issue would be 30 cents so that a 30 cent tax rate would be substituted for a 32.7 cent tax rate.

Q. Has this proposed bond issue been reviewed by the governing agencies of the State and County?

A. Yes.

Q. Have each of these agencies indicated that they feel the bond issue is necessary and proper?

A. Yes.

Q. We understand that the Health Officer has certified this bond issue as being necessary and that the Board of Supervisors concurred unanimously in his finding. Is this statement correct?

A. Yes.

Q. I was a resident of the District in 1954 when the District submitted a $4,000,000 bond issue proposition to the people. Why is this issue for $8,900,000 when that bond issue was $4,000,000?

A. The bond issue submitted to the people in 1954 was for the expansion of facilities to accommodate the 1954 District in its built-up entirety. The bond issue being submitted to the electorate this year provides for the accommodation of areas which by virtue of topography or population boundaries may require service of the District in the foreseeable future.

Q. What is the present assesed valuation of the District?

A. It is $92,400,000. This can be compared with the 1954 assessed valuation of thee district which was $54,400,000.

Q. I understand that a district is limited in the amount of an issue that can be submitted to the people. What is this limitation?

A. Fifteen percent of the assessed valuation.

Q. I understand that the bond issue provides for facilities within the District to accommodate the existing District and to areas that may later annex to the District. How are the facilities for those areas presently outside the district provided?

A. Annexing areas will provide their own facilities at their own cost.

Q. Do territories annexing to the District participate in the redemption of District indebtedness?

A. Yes.

Q. Is it true that the annexation charge of the District represents in dollars the amount that the annexing territory has escaped in taxes from the District's inception?

A. Yes.

Q. Assuming that the bond issue is successful, will there be future bond issues for the provision of sewer facilities?

A. If the policy of connection charges and annexation charges as practiced by the District is continued, there will be no need for future bond issues.

Q. Is there any organized group in the District that has expressed opposition to the bond issue?

A. No.

Q. Has the bond issue been endorsed by representative organizations in each of the several areas of the District?

A. Yes.

Q. I understand that the bond issue will provide the major collecting, treatment and disposal facilities for the District. Is this correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Is the provision of local sewerage facilities provided for in the bond issue?

A. No. Local facilities are provided when those areas require service through local improvement district proceedings or in the case of subdivisions, service is provided by the subdivider at his expense.

Q. Why is the term of repayment of the bonded indebtedness extended over 35 years?

A. To enable future residents to pay their proportionate share of facilities which they will use.

Q. Does the policy of annexation as practiced by the District actually help to reduce the tax rate for the maintenance and operation of the District?

A. Actually annexed territories by virtue of assessed valuation produce revenue through taxes in excess of the cost of maintaining and operating those areas and does, therefore, tend to reduce the tax rate for the entire District as well as participating in the cost of redeeming the bond issue.

Q. How many people are presently served by sewers of the District?

A. 70,000 persons.

Q. What were the facilities that are presently being used designed for?

A. 45,000 persons.

Q. Will the major trunk lines proposed in the bond issue accommodate all of the areas that might logically be annexed to the District?

A. Yes.

Junior Auction is Rated Big Event at County Fair

The Junior Livestock Auction to be held tomorrow at the Antioch fairgrounds is the most eagerly awaited event for most young people participating in the Contra Costa County Fair, ending Sunday.

The fair opened yesterday and major events have since been intermingled with display and judging of the ladies handiwork.

The Junior action will offer commercial buyers, restaurants and private citizens meat supplies on the hoof, according to A. M. Franch of Byron, chairman of the junior division.

For sale will be about 34 steers, 20 hogs, and 110 lambs. Auctioneer will be Bud Hollenberg of Escalon.

French said that the junior entries in all competition is much longer than any of past years.

There are 447 individual exhibits.

Girls and boys are competing for honors in clothing, and food preparation, agriculture, horticulture, farm mechanics, rural electrical use, poultry, pigeon and duck raising, wool growing, dairy cattle and meat producing livestock.

Last night was typical of the outdoor men's events which have proven crowd-drawers.

A horse pulling contest was held pitting draft horses in team of twos' attempting to move sleds loaded with great weights.

Horsemen were entered from Turlock, Modesto, Ceres and Crows Landing.

The rest of the evening had 4-H horsemanship competition and 4-H pig scramble.

A quieter part of the fair is sheltered in the home economics tents, according to Norman Sundborg, the Fair's secretary manager.

Thousands of entries were classed into 10 groups for canned fruits, 13 in canned vegetables, 11 in pickles and relishes, 13 in jams, 10 in jellies, 6 in preserves and three in marmalades and butters.

Local Housewife Takes to The Air; Tries Navy Jet

By HARRIET AINSWORTH

Floating four miles high at 400 miles per hour is a heady experience for an Orinda housewife more accustomed to dodging flying missiles in the super market.

But that high in the sky via the Navy's jet plane is just where I was recently.

As a lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve, I left home at 73 La Cuesta in Orinda for two weeks annual training duty at the U.S. Naval Air Station at Pensacola, where qualifying young men from the Bay Area earn their golden wings.

NEXT I TRAVELED to the survival unit, where I met Albert, the alligator, and Snavely, the boa constrictor. It's at Albert's and Snavely's home that the Navy lads learn how to stay alive if downed, say, on a Pacific isle. And they learn how to survive until rescue if ditched (and this is now increasingly important) in the Arctics.

Then there is the obstacle course. This they must run in two minutes and 50 seconds to pass.

Just looking at this route made me tired, but while I was there an Oakland Navcad, Robert E. Buice, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Buice, 2182 41st Ave., made it merrily in 2.5.

I DECLINED joining Bob and his class on the overnight stay in the Florida woods. This sortie climaxes the survival training program. Equipped only with knife, hatchet, food kit, canteen and parateepee he must spend the black night and make his way back to camp. Thereby obtaining a know-how that might some day somewhere save him.

Surviving the survival course, I next inspected the Marines who are responsible for teaching the midshipmen military administration, courtesy and bearing. There's something about a Marine that gets you; I saw it in the perspiring faces of the new and bedraggled recruit Navcads hup-hupping under the steamy Florida sun, and I saw what it accomplishes at the review when a class of pre-flight Navcads was graduated a scant four months after arrival.

Smart and handsome and proud they were, as they marched, with the ruffle of drums, to receive their diplomas signifying they had successfully completed the first phase of the nearly $100,000 training they receive in the Navcad program at Pensacola.

Watching the outstanding graduate in his class receive a special citation (recently this was Bruce A. Richardson, 2415 College Ave., Berkeley), and accorded the privilege therefore of "taking the review" with us in the official reveiwing stand.

I NEEDED ALL my composure for the next step in my Navcad indoctrination. After graduation from Pre-Flight the boys, now considerably toughened-up gentlemen, by the way, advance to the Primary Training phase, where they actually learn to fly.

Therefore when the Navy said how would I like to go up in the first training plane, I accepted with alacrity. This, I thought, is going to be a skylark. It turned out to be quite an experience.

BUT EVERYONE in aviation today dreams of jet flying, and for this reason fighter training is the most popular type of advanced training for today's Navy flyer. All but one of the Eastbay boys I talked to in Pensacola can't wait to get into jets.

I know why they love the jets. I found out in Polecat Zero One Three.

POLECAT ZERO One Three is a Navy jet trainer alias TV-2 at the Advanced Training Unit based at Sherman Field, the new big jet field at Pensacola.

Lt. Comdr. J. C. Box, the handsome blue-eyed and soft-spoken Texan who qualifies the newcomer pilots in jets there, checked me out first in the ejection seat and the odd, but necesary gear.

Suddenly we were four miles up, floating smooth and silent in the clean blue sky. Only by passing white clouds could you sense you were thrusting forward at more than 400 miles an hour.

If I had a boy in the military age bracket I'd hope, if he had two years of college behind him and wanted to fly, he would sign up for the Navcad program. If he had four years of college, he could get the same training, only his commission as officer earlier.

FIRST THEY PUT the training to work in two years with the fleet. After that, some stay with the Navy as a career and most return to civilian life where many keep their proficiency as "Weekend Warriors" at Reserve stations, such as at Oakland while they pursue their business careers during the week.

While this reserve officer and "first lady jet pilot" can never wear the Navy's wings of gold, she feels after touring the home of naval aviation at Pensacola that there ought to be something else besides the two and one-half gold strips and a star marking her uniform. This would be a big red heart on her sleeve — for the Navy.

Branch Librarian Gets Appointment

Appointment of Rozetta T. Cardwell as Branch Librarian in the Contra Costa County system is announced this week by County Librarian Bertha D. Hellum.

Mrs. Cardwell qualified for the position in the recent written and oral civil service examination.

A graduate of the University of Denver School of Librarianship, Mrs. Cardwell has had experience in school, college, city, county and army libraries.

She recently opened the new Westlake-Broadmoor Library in Daly City.

Heating Water Is Vital Routine

Cries of anguish when faucets fail to produce warm water for shower, shaving or dish washing, illustrate the importance of an invaluable piece of equipment in modern homes — the hot water heater— Harold E. Parker, Martinez, president of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, said.

"This necessary fixture assures comfort to all members of a family. Proper care and attention can lengthen its life and service," he said.

When first moving into a new home he recommended learning everything possible about this and other equipment to avoid needless trouble and expense.

Last Rites for Mrs. E. B. Reitz

Funeral services were held recently for Mrs. Evelyn B. Reitz, mother of Rheule Reitz, well-known Walnut Creek businessman.

A resident of Oakland, she died July 24 in the Highland Hospital, following heart complications. The last rites were held at the Engles Mortuary, and interment at the Mt. View Cemetary.

'Mr. Pennypacker' To Open Tonight For Dramateurs

"The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker" and his amazing family will be seen at the Lafayette Town Hall starting tonight at 8:30.

Subsequent Dramateur performances are scheduled for Saturday and Sunday and also Friday and Saturday of next weekend.

With the cast of 22 set to present a show that promises genuine entertainment, a great deal of the appeal and charm of this popular comedy lies in the fact that half of the cast is comprised of children and teenagers.

The cast of children is as follows:

"Laurie Pennypacker" — Barbara Gibbs, 16, and Beck Harris, Acalanes junior, will alternate on performances.

"Elizabeth Pennypacker"—Hester Harris, 12,(and Kim Allinson, 12, will alternate on performances.

"Dance Pupil" — Sheryl Studley, 14; "Teddie Penypacker" — Laurie Chapple, 13.

"Henry Pennypacker" — Eric Walling, 14; "Pennypacker Twins, David and Edward" — Kendall and Craig Studley of Orinda. Identical twins, 10; "Ben Pennypacker" — John Den Dulk, 9; "Horace Pennypacker III"—Steve Flint, 16.

In addition to these youngsters of grammar and high school age, playing roles of corresponding ages in the play, the juvenile and ingenue leads are being played by Corinne Neumann and Gordon Townsend.

Corine portrays Katherine, the eldest daughter of the Pennypackers, and Gordon plays Wilbur Fifield, the young minister who is in love with her.

Corinne Neumann is well known to valley audiences having appeared in many productions with the Pleasant Hill Players and later with the Intimate Theatre of Walnut Creek. Gordon Townsend is in his second year at Contra Costa Junior College and plans to major in Dramatics.

Refreshments will be served between acts in the basement recreation room of the Town Hall. Tickets may be purchased from Dramateur members or at the Box Office.

Admission is $1.10, with children under eight admitted free.

FRUIT STAINS

Vacation trips often are the time when the family has snacks while riding along in the car. Should the upholstery become soiled with fruit stains, this is the correct way to remove them. Rub the stain lightly with a cloth dampened with lukewarm water. Allow to dry and rub gently with fabric cleaner. Do not use soap

Jaycee Groups Tie Friendship Bonds at Picnic

The Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce was host Sunday to the Pleasant Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce at a joint picnic.

50 Jaycees and their families enjoyed swimming, beer, free beans and soda pop.

The day was sunny and a shady spot under the trees at Curry Creek Park provided the ideal background for cementing the relationship of the two groups.

The Lafayette-Orinda committee of Bill Hoover, Edward Sullivan, Bob Boyles, Cam Ashby and Walt Kenzler announced that the outstanding event of the day was the ball game, which was won by Pleasant Hill, 14 to 10.

The highlight of the game was a 10 run first inning which featured an eight run rally after two were out.

Plans were initiated for future group activities which would also include the Walnut Creek, Concord and Danville Jaycees.

TURN 'EM ON

Turn your car headlights on as darkness approaches. Dusk is the most dangerous time of the day. If you turn your headlights on promptly you will give the other fellow a break as well as yourself.

Of boys and bats . . . gold braid, brass hats

HERE'S LOOKING 'EM OVER! The Orinda fathers and fellas who lend excitement to the local summer w/the highly successful "Twilight League" baseball series . . . The parents who follow the games cheering their kids on to home runs and fair team play, ending up themselves w/laryngitis plus indigestion, having bolted their dinner down hurriedly in order to make the early evening games played on Orinda's School playgrounds.

The lady of the House ditching her dinner dishes for an early seat on the sidelines, and loud squeals and screams and stadium yells surprisingly emanating from some of the most silent type mothers . . . The Dads, always ready w/a proud papal pat on the back for any of the boys, good for an ice-cream treat afterwards at LOARD'S which does a land-office business after the games are over . . . The BIG thrill and title of "Bat Boy" for "little brother," who can't wait till he is big enough to play!

For some laugh-at-yourself reading, try "It's Only A Game" in this month's Reader's Digest which, having made Harper's, sums up the situation on local baseball better than we can!

VISITING ROYALTY FROM THAILAND . . . The Very Admirable Admiral Charron Chalermitiarana of the Royal Thailand Navy and his Chief-of-Staff Sangad Chaloryoo were honored guests at a buffet supper party Monday night given by Capt. and Mrs. Willis Pickton at their Sleepy Hollow home . . . Mrs. Pickton well-orientated in handling lengthy complicated names on her guest list from the family's stay of duty in Bangkok a year or so ago before Capt. Pickton retired from the USN.

Local guests very impressed w/the distinguished visitors were Orinda newcomers, Colonel and Mrs. Charles Gibbs, who by the way, celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary Sunday w/a champagne punch party for a contingent of close friends . . . The Picton's daughter Beth, home from SCRIPPS College for the summer, a helping hand to her hostess mother.

MORE BRASS AND BRAID . . . Jean Scofield and children, Dillon, Suzanne, and Baby "Butch' awaiting Capt. Ed Scofield's step on their La Madronal threshold any day . . . Verrier and his wife arriving for a 2-mos. stay w/ daughter and son-in-law Grace and Pete Duffy of Mariposa Lane. . . A simultaneous visit for Grace's sister, Mrs. Charles E. Lee, who arrived this week from Alaska and will go on to a new home in No. Carolina where Col. and Mrs. Verrier will visit later this summer . . . Capt. and Mrs. Earl Goldsmith tanned at Tahoe recently, spent last week in Carmel!

Bermuda better here than on Madison Ave.

Harriet Ainsworth, home from Florida Friday, just in time for the Valley Art Center's Sunday party (and Jay Jr.'s b'day at Playland on Mon.!) found the pool at Mrs. Harold Powell's Happy Valley home quite a contrast to the 90 degree waters of the Gulf . . . Jay Gordon Sr. worth a mention in brown linen bermudas topped w/an italian shirt his spouse brought from the southland, added a bit of sartorial suburban splendor to the cool sunny cottons worn by Art Center lady members and guests. . . .

Poolside brunch of ham 'n eggs partaken by the Al deGrassis, Russel Gilwees, Wellington Rays, all delighted onlookers when George and Doris Clifford executed some of their newest dance steps in the summer sun . . . Guests of Hal Babbitt were Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Neighbor and the Guy Hornsbys.

OVER ON CASCADE LANE, the John Brunces passed cocktails and canapes Saturday last to a large group of friends . . . The Walt Sneiders camped among the redwoods at Big Bar . . . Donal and Oneida Skilling of Overhill fished along the Feather River . . . Nightly fireside fun for the Wen Littletons and Jerry Trumbleys who shared a cabin in the Sierras this summer.

NO RESERVATIONS were needed for the Charles Ericksons who took a little of home right along w/them this year on a trailer trip through the Grand Canyon, Salt Lake and scenic Nevada.

The James Byers and the Tom Kallams among those serenaded by Alohas in Hawaii this summer . . . The Mel Colwell's did Disneyland, then cooled off awhile at Coronada before returning home last week. The Harold Ohleyers pool and cabana, designed by Orinda Architect Wayne Littlejohn, is pictured in this month's SUNSET. . . Elaine and Ole (he gave "Absurdia In Suburbia" its apt title!) have lived in their Hacienda Circle home for fifteen years and parts of the lovely house belong to the original 70 yr. old farmhouse that the Ohleyers refurbished and added to and onto.

("ABSURDIA IN SUBURBIA," for the benefit of newcomers, is the name of the show that belongs to Orinda alone and in which everybody, but EVERYBODY participates!)

Laurie Kersten recently honored her new neighbor Evelyn Roberts at a luncheon w/the following extending a welcome hand to the former Denver resident, now living on Canan Drive . . . June Merrell, Betty Brookes, Beryl Lusher, Jean Watkins, Ann Bailey, Helen Dahley, Ruth Tinkham and Myrtle Patterson whose first visitor on arrival home following early July hospitalization was Wirtabel Harris, bearing the homey gift of a fragrant loaf of homemade bread.

Safety Drive Chairmen Told

A Walnut Creek man and a Pleasant Hill man have been named respective community chairmen of the Citizens Action Force for Safety, it was announced by Donald Doyle, general chairman.

They are Willard Stone, Walnut Creek insurance broker, and Edward "Ted" Winslow, an insurance man in Pleasant Hill.

The citizens group will spearhead a mobilization of public support for the Contra Costa Safety Council, to make possible permanent headquarters and a continuing safety program, Doyle said.

Stone, who resides at 1666 Merian Drive, Concord, has been active in civic projects locally for a number of years.

He is a member of Rotary, Optimist, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and is an executive of the Central Contra Costa Builders Exchange.

Stone has been identified with past Walnut Festivals and other civic undertakings.

Winslow, living at 185 Sylvia Street, Concord, is a member of Pleasant Hill Lions Club, Pleasant Hill Chamber of Commerce and Junior Chamber of Commerce and of the Gregory Village Merchants Association.

JUDGE KILLIAM J. McGuiness of Oakand, past president of Eastbay Chapter National Safety Council, at a barbecue dinner and board meeting of the Safety Council last Sunday evening, pointed out that Contra Costa and Alameda Counties despite tremendous population increases, can well lead thenation in accident prevention. This is provided that continuous safety education are brought to every resident of this county.

The meeting was held at the residence of Dr. Otis Cobb, Alhambra Valley Road, Martinez, and attracted 75 board members, campaign leaders and special guests.

EARL F. CAMPBELL, executive director of the California Traffic Safety Foundation, also stressed the need for immediate, concerted action on the accident problem in this county, pointing out that it is considered a critical area in the state accident study and should have the benefit of full-time, expert direction.

Moraga Dateline

Summer vacation is half over, pear season is almost here and the orchard activity is more pronounced. School is that much nearer, and so is Brownie Camp.

For the general information of the parents of little Brownies going, Day Camp starts Monday morning and will last through Friday. Mrs. Donna Cole, 312 Rheem Boulevard, is the camp leader and these are here instructions:

Have your Brownie at her house no later than 9:30 a.m., with their lunch in a paper sack with name on it, and they will be served milk at camp. Pick her up at the Cole home after 3 p.m.

Appropriate dress is tennis shoes, shorts or jeans according to the weather and shirts. No halters or suntops, please. Don't forget the jacket.

Ed Bisiar of Moraga, has accepted the position of director of athletics at the Stanley School in Lafayette. Ed has been teaching for the past 2 years in Oakland and is happy to get closer to homee. Good luck, Ed.

SAILOR NO MORE

WELCOME HOME to Thomas (Tommy) Townsend, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zillich of Camino Pablo, who has just received (with pleasure) his discharge from the U. S. Navy.

Tommy, who evidently believes in seeing his country first hand, made the trip home from Waterbur, Connecticut with a friend, Buddy Bernier, on a 1955 Harley Davidson motorcycle. The trip o 3,314 miles, took them six days, but they tell me it wasn't too bad; as they stopped over nights at motels and rested up.

On their arrival at home, they were joined by Tommy's shipmate, Rocky Surace, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who flew by United Airlines from Chicago and who will spend a short time here before returning home. The two friends have served aboard the USS Benham, D.D., for the entire time of service.

Their plans are to spend a little time vacationing before settling down to civilian life and a job.

Also visiting at the Zillich home is Mrs. Thelma Zillich's nephew Sonny Boyer, of Merced. Sonny is a student at San Jose State, and will be in our area only a few days.

Weekend visitors at the Lloyd Lund home on Rheem Boulevard were two couples from East Providence, R. I., Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Perry are on an automobile tour of the United States and Mexico and are now on their way home to Rhode Island after a wonderful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Faris, close neighbors of the Perrys, will be flying back home on August 2. According to Mrs. Gertrude Mederos, Mrs. Lund's mother, the Perys and Farias were, for many years, next door neighbors of hers on Dever Avenue in East Providence, and they all had a wonderful time talking about old times.

Mrs. Mederos, who has been making an extended visit with her daughter's family, plans to leave by train some time next week, for home. Taking the long way around to Rhode Island, she will stop off in Birmingham, Ala. to visit a few days with a nephew Joseph Moniz. She tells me, however, she hopes to be back out here in the near future.

SOME HOMECOMING

Mrs. Mardel Carr, who with her four children had been spending two weeks at the summer cottage of her in-laws, at Chester, Calif., returned home Saturday, July 25, to find her husband, Sam incapacitated by a double fracture of the ankle.

Sam was hauling a tank o out. Striking a two foot cliff, the water (800 lbs.) in the back of weight of the wateer swung to the jeep, when the brakes gave one side and tipped the jeep, catching Sam's feet under the windshield. He now sports a heavy cast and crutch and is able to get about a bit. He should NEVER have gotten off his horse!

Speaking of horses, the newly formed Junior Horseman's Association, held their first social gatheering on Sunday, July 29. Thirty riders, 28 juniors and their 2 leaders, Roy Gesinger and Bill Lance, met at Clark's Market, Rheem Center, at 10 a.m. and proceded to the Harold Parker Ranch in Bolinger Canyon.

At the end of the hour trip, they were served a lunch consisting of hot dogs, cokes, watermelons, by sponsors, Betty and Harold Parker, Roy and Adele Gesinger and Bill and Edna Lance.

According to the kids, they had a wonderful time and are already planning a big time for next month. Details later.

Returned home from a two week trip, which covered a lot of ground in Nevada, Idaho, Washington on down into Oregon, are Mr. John Hammond and son Dick of Camino Pablo. A week of that time was spent on the McKenzie River fishing, the second week visiting relatives in Bend and Eugene.

HAPPY VACATION

Sally Hammond flew to Eugene and spent a week vacationing, then returned with her father and brother. No trouble reported, but a good time and lots of fish caught.

Last week the Dudley Davis family of Rheem Boulevard entertained at their home with a barbecue dinner for the employees of the General Electric Lamp Co.

Purpose of the get-together, was to introduce two new members of the staff, Mr. Ralph DeVille of Miami, Fla., who is the company's new Ceramic Engineer, and Mr. Clifford Johnson, student at U of Cal, who will be a part time employee at the plant. During the evening neighbors of the Davis' dropped by.

The main event of the year for the Moraga Community Club directors and oficers, was held Thursday evening, July 23, in the form of a smorgasbord dinner at the officers club, Alameda Naval Air Station.

Attending the function were president, Captain and Mrs. Harold Parker, vice president Mr. and Mrs. Jack Winther, secretary Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickensen, treasurer, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lance, directors Mr. and Mrs. Al Baitx, Mr. and Mrs. John Thune, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carroll and Mrs. Helen Hetfield. Dancing completed the evening.

A belated happy birthday to Miss Marion Collett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Davis, of 292 Rheem Boulevard, who celebrated her 13th birthday with a party for eight girl friends on Tuesday, July 24, although the birthday was actually on Sunday, July 22.

Main event of the party was a treasure hunt, the treasure being cosmetics for the girls.

A volunteer worker, under the National Alert called by President Eisenhower, was Mrs. Elinor Dickenson, Moraga Postmaster.

Elinor reported for duty in the Department of Emergency Welfare under Prof. Chernin of the U of Cal. Held at Regional Headquarters, Grizzly Peak, duties consisted of feeding, clothing, registering and housing of all evacuees. Also took care of decontamination.

In the immediate Bay Area, there were a hypethetical 164,000 casualties. 250 volunteers took part in the alert.

Family Ends Long Travels

A meeting of the National Transportation Committee of the American Retail Federation was a highlight of a six-weeks vacation trip for F. S. Clough of Alamo and his family.

The local residents returned from their lengthy travels last week. They drove to Hoover Dam, enroute to Denver, Colo., where the meeting took place.

They visited Grand Teton, Yellowstone Park, Glacier National Park, Banff, Lake Louise, in the Caribou country of British Columbia, Washington, Oregon and areas on a return trip along Redwood Highway.

MEMBERS OF THE remarkable family of "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker" are these pensive looking twins, Kendall and Craig Studley. The Dramateur presentation of the play opens tonight at the Lafayette Town Hall and will continue tomorrow and Sunday nights and the following weekend, with the remarkable action beginning at 8:30. Half of the cast of 22 is comprised of children and teenagers. Admission is $1.10, with children under eight admitted free.

Concordia Group To Sing Thursday At Faith Lutheran

The Concordia Seminary Quartet will present a sacred concert of Lutheran church music at Faith Lutheran Church, opposite Motor-In Theater, Pleasant Hill, Thursday.

The group of singers comes from one of the world's largest theological schools. The quartet has toured the Midwest and Eastern states in previous years. This is the first visit by the group to Western and Pacific Coast states.

This concert is part of an extensive three month itinerary.

The music will consist of works by Schuetz, Bach, Palestrina, Shaw and others. The members of the quartet are preparing for pastorates in the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

Concert time is 8 p.m.

UNDERNOURISHMENT

Your car may be suffering from undernourishment caused by dirt and sediment in the fuel pump bowl. The fuel pump strainer and sediment bowl should be cleaned every 5000 miles to insure proper flow of gasoline to the carburetor.

"Lotus Blossom" and "Lady Astor" are two important actresses in the famed "Teahouse Of The August Moon" comedy stage hit now playing a limited engagement at the Geary Theatre, San Francisco. California-born Michi Kobi, plays the role of the geisha girl who throws an Okinawan village into a spin when an enthusiastic native gives her as a live present to the handsome young captain of American Occupation Forces. "Lady Astor" figures in numerous amusing sequences throughout the fast-stepping Pulitzer Prize play, now on a farewell tour. The comedy stars Larry Parks and the large cast includes such well-known stage, screen and tv names as Thomas Coley, John Alexander and Don Lochner.

SUN WANT ADS GO IN 4 PAPERS FOR ONE BARGAIN PRICE!

Vote 'YES' Tuesday On Sewer Bonds!

Tuesday voters in the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District will be asked to approve a bond issue for $8,900,000.

How will you vote?

In the front section of this paper will be found stories and questions and answers, all with factual information on the operation, background and needs of the sanitary district.

The operation of a district as large and comprehensive as the sanitary district is a complicated and delicate business. It is difficult, frequently, for those who attend sanitary district meetings regularly to keep abreast of the actions and decision of the board, and to keep informed of the needs and operations of the district.

It is more difficult for the casual user of the sanitary system, who often feels: "My sewer works, why should I care what else happens?"

The sanitary district has spent thousands of dollars on engineering studies and reports in order to operate in the most efficient and reasonable manner possible, but unlike a private business, the district cannot take action to acquire funds without the approval of its own stockholders . . . the resident and taxpayer.

The Sun feels that the present board and staff of the district have worked long and hard and have done everything possible to explore the present and future needs of the district.

Therefore, a "YES" vote is recommended on this issue Tuesday.

This vote, unlike previous votes, requires a simple majority — not a two-thirds majority, because the county and state health officers have certified this bond issue as being necessary, and the board of supervisors has concurred unanimously.

Our county is growing, and it is going to continue to grow. Growth means that additional services will continue to be necessary, and these services will cost money.

This type of bond issue is the fairest means of paying for such services, because as future residents move into the area, they help absorb the cost of the installation of services which they must have.

Progress cannot be halted. If sewers and lines are needed, and they cannot be established in one way, you can be sure that sooner or later they will be established in another.

It behooves us, therefore, as conscientious residents and taxpayers, to provide what must eventually come about in the most reasonable and equitable way possible.

This bond issue is such a reasonable and equitable proposal.

What They Say . .

Reading Aids Beating Heat

The summer heat wave brings varying temptations — the urge to escape to cooler climes, the desire for swimming pools and sun umbrellas — and the lust for some good reading to accompany these endeavors.

Wherever folks travel and however their leisure time is occupied during the summer months, some of their most common pieces of equipment are rolls of magazines and newspapers tucked under their arms, or a dog-eared novel packed into the lunch basket.

OVER THE SHOULDER readers, like your Roving Reporter, find it very difficult to ply their practice with the literature in these concealed places.

But undaunted, and craving to find out just what people read under the influence of a warm sunny day, we came out and asked several local folk what was hidden between the covers of their reading material.

There's nothing like a good mystery story to take your mind off the heat, according to Ernest J. Calgan, 57 Bobolink Road, Orinda.

"Short fiction, especially those mysteries, are what I read mostly," he replied. "In magazines, the Saturday Evening Post is about my favorite."

But to get a contrast in his magazine reading, Calgan is also a devotee of Newsweek magazine.

READING HAS taken on more serious and more heartfelt aspects for Mrs. Earl W. Huscher of 3210 Rohrer Drive, Lafayette.

Her mother is very ill and Mrs. Huscher reports that she has confined most of her reading of late to the Bible, where she can find reassurance.

"Ordinarily, though," she said, "I read Coronet, Reader's Digest, and just about everything."

Mrs. John A. Sexson, 1227 Upper Valley Road, Orinda, found that magazines had become her favorite summertime reading material because they "aren't so heavy" as the books she usually reads.

"When the children aren't home so much," she revealed, "I like to keep up with the current novels."

Mrs. Richard Overholtzer of 69 Fordham Court, Pleasant Hill said, "I like mostly fiction, but haven't had much time this summer.

"I did read Lloyd Douglas' "The Robe" about a year ago. It was a wonderful book."

Mrs. W. H. Woodard of 71 Los Cerros Place, Walnut Creek, found the question easy.

"I DO PRACTICALLY no reading in the summertime. Our family spends most of the time in the patio, which my family and I built. Reading in the sunshine isn't too good," she said.

"We are just getting settled after moving from San Francisco, and I've been arranging our library. I picked out quite a stack of books to read, but will probably put most of them away without reading them," admitted Mrs. Robert Harelson of 349 Valley View Road, Pleasant Hill.

"The magazines are piling up, I'm afraid, without being read. But I have been able to finish "There is no Asia," by Dwight Cooke. It helps toward understanding a people who are becoming more important to world affairs every day," she added.

MRS. JOHN KERR of 1375 El Curtola Boulevard, Walnut Creek, likes the light stuff, especially magazines, but gardening and keeping up the lawn claims most of her time.

"I'd like to keep the lawn like a golf course, naturally, but that's a big order," she confided.

Financing Homes Is Local Topic

Members of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County were told about "Financing of Homes" at a luncheon meeting in the Association offices Wednesday.

Progress Group Supports Sewer District Bonds

Endorsement of the $8,900,000 Central Sanitary District sewer bonds was voted recently by the Association for the Progress and Improvement of Contra Costa County, it was announced today by Charles Hahn of Reliez Valley, a member of its Citizen's Committee for Sewage Bonds.

Hahn, a past president of the Reliez Valley Improvement Association, and the chairman of the Sewage and Drainage Committee of the County Association stated that the passage of the bonds is essential to eliminate the dumping of raw sewage during peak periods throughout the district.

The Association was formed last year to promote sound planning and good development throughout the entire county, he said. It is presided over by President George Weise of Martinez.

Senator Miller to Discuss Politics At Demo Confab

State Senator George Miller Jr. will be the main speaker at a meeting, open to the general public, next Thursday at the Fair Oaks School, 2400 Lisa Lane, Concord. Time of the meeting is 8 p.m.

Senator Miller's two-fold topic will be "The Democratic Clubs of California" and "Our State Government.

The meeting is sponsored by the Pleasant Hill Democratic Club. Club President Edward Clay has issued special invitations to the Lafayette and Walnut Creek Democratic Clubs.

The special feature of the meeting will be "The Ballad of Dick Nixon," a recorded satire of the political career of Vice-president Richard Nixon.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Letters to The Editor

CONTRARY MARY

Dear Editor:

We read in last week's Sun that certain people were attempting to invite the VA hospital back again to Orinda for another go-around. Reminds us of a nursery rhyme.

Here is our version. May we suggest they try it for size.

Mary, Mary, quite contrary,
How does Orinda grow?
With petitions and protests,
Dissensions and court tests!
Our "planners" are running the show!
Discord they foster, disquiet they breed,
Agreement they shun, must we follow their lead?
"Realtors, Bankers, Big Interests" they yell,
"Homeowners! Under d o g s ! Rise up to rebel!"
Orinda is torn by the strife and turmoil,
Friendships are strained, the teapot's a-boil.
Why are our Bell Sheep so frantically bleating?
Searching and digging, protesting and meeting?
The Bell Sheep are leading us on to the fray,
But who leads the Bell Sheep, we ask if we may.

(Name Withheld on Request)

THANKS

Dear Editor:

Just a note of thanks to one of Pleasant Hill's most enengetic citizens, Tom Dietzel, aged 65 plus, who unselfishly gives of his time and energy as the number one leg man in the area.

Deitzel actively campaigned for the flood bond election campaign and now has spent most of the week placing placards in support of the Sanitary District campaign throughout Pleasant Hill.

Wallace to Speak at Mart Meet

Clarence Wallace, retired brigidair general, U. S. Marine Corps, will speak Monday morning at the Contra Costa Real Estate Board breakfast.

Wallace, an Alamo resident, and Mel Nielsen of Lafayette are candidates for Contra Costa County supervisor, to fill a post soon to be vacated by Jack Cummings.

TICKET SALES chairmen for the annual barbecue to be held August 15 at Chubby Humbles, Clayton, have been appointed.

They are Ted Baker, Alamo, Charles Greer and Doris Jellet of Lafayette, Ealon Willey and Charles Harvey of Orinda, Ed Landis, Mark Johnson, Frank Keefe and Benny Anderson, Walnut Creek.

Also Jerry Deutscher, Pleasant Hill, and Tom Teal and Ray McCoy, Danville.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED that the top ticket salesman will be given the "Charles Harvey Award", which has been described as being "closely related to a geiger counter, also called a Loo-ker Locater."

Board members have volunteered to help U. S. Army officers and enlisted men assigned to anti-aircraft bases being built in Orinda, to find housing.

Board Secretary Wayne Bailey today finished a week of fishing. Locations of his best strikes were not immediately made public.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

When neighbors work together

One of the nicest things about living in Suburbia Land are the wonderful people who live next door, across the street and down the block.

Friendly people can have fun together and work together in many ways. Cooperative babysitting plans and neighborhood nursery school groups are two good examples. Neighborhood improvement clubs are organized for business and pleasure. And during the summer, "trade deals" on watering the gardens and feeding the dogs exemplify a neighborly spirit.

But here is news of a new venture in neighborhood enterprise. I've just learned of a group of neighbor women who collectively bought a new reducing-relaxing machine. Phones buzzed, meetings held, schedules drafted. I'm told the machine is in constant use day and night—by the eight women and some of their husbands. A mighty fine idea.

Swimming along together

This reminds me to plug the idea of neighborhood or community swimming clubs—which perhaps requires the greatest degree of cooperation.

Pools open to an entire community is, of course, most important—whether built by school districts, recreation districts or other public bodies. But these do not conflict with cooperative swimming pool clubs. Such clubs have had tremendous success in this area and they serve a wonderful purpose.

Perhaps the oldest in the area is Orinda Park Pool. (Orinda and Diablo country clubs and Contra Costa Golf Club are, of course, more than just swimming clubs but certainly fulfill the same need. New clubs of this type are now being organized.) Other large swimming clubs include Sleepy Hollow, Meadow Pools, Sun Valley, Las Juntas, Diablo Valley, to name a few.

Tailor it to your needs

Important also are the small cooperative groups where nine or nineteen families band together and build a pool. Two successful ones are Crestview and Springhill Road. A new one, Miramonte Pools, will soon be operating.

On the opposite end of the scale are the community-wide pool, such as those recently opened in Pleasant Hill.

The need in the area is still great, despite the great strides made this past year. I heartily suggest that new and old neighborhoods investigate and work together.

Now after giving all this sage advice, I have a confession. My neighborhood tried but just couldn't get together on a cooperative swimming pool!

What's that about "practice what you preach?"

Art Center Fund Gains; Benefit Swim Meet Soon

Perfect swimming weather last Sunday brought close to 100 members and guests to the Valley Art Center's swim branch at the H. W. Powell home in Lafayette. The affair was held for the benefit of the Center's building fund.

Garden sculpture and mosaics by Bella Feldman, Berkeley sculptress, set off the pool area where swimmers spent the greater part of the warm afternoon.

Michael Czaja, president of the organization, announced that there are still a few opening in the class in mosaics by Bella Feldman.

The class will be given for six weeks starting September 25 under the sponsorship of the Valley Art Center.

Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth, chairman of the Junior olympics to be staged Sunday, August 19 at the Powell home, announced that reservations for the event featuring races, relays and water games for children from 5 to 16 will be limited to 200.

Tickets are 50 cents for adults or children and reservations will be accepted by Mrs. Ainsworth, CL 4-2192. Dr. Joesph Lorber, Lafayette, and Sally Freedman, Orinda, are in charge of the swim meet.

Out of town guests at the brunch Sunday included: Frank Brown, C. Preston Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maley, San Francisco; Messrs. and Mesdames C. A. Armas, Russ Streeter and Jack Miller, Oakland, and Virginia Powell, Alameda.

Local members and guests included: Messers. and Mesdames Robert Schlenker, James Hull, Paul Hammarberg, Stanley McPherson, Harry Peet, Edmund Barnett, Mel Nielsen, Cutler McLenegan, Harold Hays, Russell Fairbairn and S. W. Smith and Dr. and Mrs. John M. Ellis, Lafayette.

Guy Hornsby, S. G. Cluver, A. H. De Grassi, Russell Gilwee, William Wilkenson, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Neighbor, and Hal Babbitt, Orinda.

Fred von Guenthner, De Witt Kreuger and Stan Kwiatt, Walnut Creek.

Committee members for the party included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Rawlings Simon, Glenn Max, Hansen and Ernest Hoversten, and Mesdames Howard Stafford, A. M. Jacobsen and Harold Powell, Lafayette.

Other committeemen wer Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth and Mesdames Wellington Ray, Orinda; Arthur Wagstaff, Peter Howard and Pat Moran, Walnut Creek.

WEARINESS

Two enemies of safe driving are weariness and worry. Weariness slows down reaction time and worry affects concentration. You can't always stop worryink when you get behind the wheel of your car, but you can take a rest if you're weary. Give yourself a break, don't drive when you're tired.

King's Starts Second Round With Bang!

W.C. Sand & Gravel Bows in Tourney Opener

With the Rheem Center nine "in" as champions due to its lofty standing, the Walnut Creek Softball League swung into action again last week after a week's layoff due to the Invitational Tournament play. The tourney crown was captured for the second straight year by the Benecia Bombers.

Kings Market copped a 5-2 decision over Contra Costa Sand and Gravel to launch last week's play.

THE MARKET NINE posted a pair of runs in the second inning to take the lead, after trailing 1-0 in the first when the Contra Costan's left fielder Babe Furhman walked, went to second on a passed ball, reached third on a fielder's choice and scrambled home baseman booted a ball.

Kings' two runs in the second came when centerfielder DeMello lead off with a single, and with two down scored on Al Perreira's triple. Perreira tallid when right fielder Lyle Palmer singled.

Another pair of runs was added to Kings' total in the fourth on three hits and two miscues, with the big blow, a double, coming off the bat of catcher George Cockerton.

KINGS BROUGHT the count to a 5-1 advantage when they scored a run in the top of the sixth as Cockerton tripled and Palmer singled. But the Contra Costa nine closed the gap to 5-3 in their half of that heat and had a definite threat going.

However, the rally fell short and the game wound up without any further scoring.

Gene Bell received credit for the win as he hurled five-hit ball while giving up three bases on balls and whiffing a like number.

Will Buechel was on the losing end, yielding 11 safe blows while issuing one walk and setting down 11 on strikeouts.

BIG STICK for the winners was Lyle Palmer with 3 for 3, two singles and a triple.

As the week's action continued, Contra Costa Sand and Gravel avenged itself with a 5-1 victory over Haffmon's Liquors, via a four run rally in the fifth.

It was deadlocked at 1-1 at the end of the fourth when the Gravelers erupted with their big inning. The four runs scored in that frame proved more than adequate as neither team could tally again.

Will Beuchel was again chucking for Contra Costa, but this time was on the winning side of the ledger as he gave up seven scattered hits and struck out five, while giving up just a lone base on balls.

IN THE LOSER'S corner was Al Rangel, who recorded six hits, three walks and three strikeouts.

The week ended with Rheem Center demonstrating their championship form as Big Ed Bill hurled a shutout three-hitter over Serpa Pontiac-Buick. Meanwhile, his teammates were collecting six hits an dthree runs of their own to notch the win.

Lee Frost pitched good ball as he walked but two and struck out three. The difference was Bill, who set down 14 on strikeouts while giving up only four free bases.

Rheem scored single runs in the first, fourth and sixth frames. Bill Piona of the winners had the big bat with two for three, a pair of singles.

BILL WAS THE HERO for Rheem again last Tuesday as he hurled his amtes to a 7-4 win over Kings Market. Rheem scored one in the first, only to have Kings tally a pair to take the lead in the top of the second.

It was short lived, however, as Rheem, with a run of their own in the bottom half of the inning knotted the count. Both teams scored single runs in the fourth to bring the count to 3-3.

Rheem put four hits together in the fifth to decide the issue as they scored three runs. While Kings hit pay dirt with a lone run in the seventh, it wasn't enough.

Strong-armed Bill gave up seven hits, six walks and struck out nine.

Vick of Kings posted eight hits, six walks and set two batters down swinging.

WITH RHEEM CENTER "in" as Walnut Creek softball champions, play will officially wind up next Tuesday.

Lafayette Junior Baseball Has One More Week

With one more week of play remaining, pennant chases in the Lafayette Youth Baseball League find Sports and Games out in front of the pack in the Majors.

Close behind is the Lafayette Furniture aggregation, which has played one more game.

The issues are still in doubt in both the Majors and Minors, and next week's play will be all-important in deciding the champs.

IN THE MINORS, Kings Market has the inside track with a two game bulge over Gaston's Cleaners, which holds down the second spot. With a spotless 7-0 record, Kinks is the circuit's only undefeated club.

Closeness of the competition is attested to by the fact that four clubs are tied up in the team standings.

HERE ARE the results of last week's Major loop play:

Tuesday — Lafayette Furniture 2, Lincoln Development 2.

Wednesday — Sun Valley Lumber 1, Lafayette Pharmacy 5.

Thursday — Gaston's 9, Lafayette Rental 10.

Friday — Lincoln 0, Gaston's 8.

Schedule of play in the Minors is as follows:

Today — Lafayette Rental vs. Kings.

Tuesday — Jacuzzi vs. Rett-White.

Wednesday — Kings vs. Lafayette Pharmacy.

Thursday — Kings vs. Lafayette Pharmacy.

Friday — Gastons vs. Lafayette Furniture.

MAJOR SCHEDULE:

Today — Rett-White vs. Lafayette Pharmacy.

Monday — Lincoln vs. Jacuzzi.

Tuesday — Rett-White vs. Sun Valley.

Wednesday—Sports and Games vs. Kings Market.

Thursday — Lafayette Pharmacy vs. Gaston's.

Friday — Lafayette Rental vs. Lafayette Furniture.

Dick David, a former University of California ball player, has taken over the management of the Rett-White club in the Major division. Denny Toll, who came to Lafayette via Arizona, is a big righthander who is regarded as a top prospect for Acalanes High. He is going into the 8th grade at the Stanley School.

WHEN HE GETS to high school he is expected to team up with Tom Strain for a terrific hurling duo. Tom hasn't lost a game in the Walnut Creek Recreational League in two seasons of play.

Tom's young brother Bobby is showing a lot of hurling talent of his own as a member of the Rett-White Minor loop club.

Donnie Nelson enters high school as a freshman this year and, like his brother Ronnie, who played first string on the school nine last year, he is a second baseman.

In the Minors a pair of players bearing watching are Steve Kirby, Sports and Games catcher, and Leonard Ferro of the Kings aggregation, who also has been doing a fine job in the field and at bat.

Randy Fox, a catcher, and Jack Lavey, third baseman, are two of the standouts for Lafayette Rental.

Diamond Chatter...

Sports & Games Cinches Eastern League in 4-1 Tilt

By MEL ALAMANO

This week found Sports and Games cinching the Eastern League after a tough battle with Merv O'Donnell's hustling Diablo Drug's team, 4-1.

Red Gillham who never sleeps because all the time he finds to manage a Walnut Creek team, a Lafayette team, practice them and help all the other boys on other teams in practice, umpire, work on ball diamond, haul youngsters to and from home, teach music, play in a band and still be a nice guy, he just hasn't that much time to sleep.

Red, along with Al Nye and John Cones spent many hours to teach Sports and Games team deserve credit.

These kids in spite of some remarks were not the best players available the start of the season but with many nights and days of teaching and of a desire to play developed into a good team.

Many coaches put plenty of time trying to keep their teams but with vacations hurting they could only do so much. Red's team arranged its vacations between games or are waiting until the season ends August 11. Many parents of course can't do this but these kids like most of the other boys in the league just love to play and win.

BEING A SPONSOR of Red's team and also having a son playing I am grateful for what he had done for us. Besides being a good friend he is terrific fellow with youngsters and all love the "Pied Piper."

All year he has spent time with other teams practicing them helping them correct faults. Any afternoon he is free he is at the City Park with kids of all ages umpiring, a game for mixed teams high school age on down.

IN FAIRNESS to the rest of the league if there were another round of play to go this writer would not bet on any team because many fine players and teams have improved greatly.

Fellows like Tom Strain, a fine pitcher and hitter, realize you have to have players behind you to win and keep getting runs. Red's team was the youngest in age in the league and took baseball seriously enough to want to win. They proved themselves sportsman and good ones in many a game.

A top team is always in for remarks and these kids got their share, I know a few, tears were spilled, but in any game anyplace in the world things like that happen. A boy's emotions can't be controlled at all times. Most parents know what we mean even the best show tears of disappointment or are just plain disgusted with themselves at time. Of all the boys that I have coached, I haven't found one without feelings, Bench jockeys in baseball are part of the game and we have plenty in our leagues, but it all is meant in clean fun and no one should taxe exception unless it gets too personal.

ALL TEAMS have fine fellows running them and in most cases would have won more games if at sign up time all boys would have let them know where they were going on vacations instead of leaving without fair notice.

Reports given us say our leagues are better organized, better informed and faster players than most any in the state or county.

Every Sunday a fellow from Oakland drives out and spends the day here watching our teams. This fellow saw the best players from Babe Ruth to the last Oakland team.

He is "Pete" the ground keeper in Oakland Oaks Ball Park and until they left last year, he says the kids are fun to watch and the parents real people to watch never making it tough on the umpire or on the youth.

Also our City Park and Mattson Field in Lafayette he claims take a back seat to any youth diamonds little league or otherwise.

Hats off to two fine coaches, Hollis McLaughlin of Thompson Electric and Fran Morris of Air Reserve. They both have fine teams and fine players. Only one week to go now and after a fine ties and postponed games are played off the league standings should be nip and tuck. Its too bad everybody can't be champs but that's baseball.

RAINY WEATHER DANGEROUS

A wet, rainy night is the most dangerous time there is for pedestrians. If you're walking, look out for vehicles and don't assume that the driver can see you. If you're driving, make sure your windshield wipers are working properly and keep a sharp lookout for persons afoot.

Deer Plentiful Here as Season Opens Tomorrow

Wardens of the Department of Fish and Game report prospects for the August 4-September 16 deer season in the coastal areas appear most favorable for those hunters who obtain permission to roam private lands.

The animals are in good condition, the wardens report, and numbers generally are plentiful in the closed areas, where owners' permission or gun club membership is needed.

In the national forests, open for public hunting, deer are likely to be fewer.

All land in this county is closed to the public and deer are plentiful.

Fire conditions again are hazardous. Heavy rains caused greater growth of grass and weeds which now are tinder dry. Extreme caution is necessary to extinguish all campfires and to be careful in discarding matches and cigarettes.

In most coastal areas, hunters should carry water for themselves and their vehicles.

The bag limit is two bucks (forked horn or better) except during the last three days of the season when an antlerless deer may be taken in place of a buck in certain portions of the coastal area.

SPORTS

Spectators See 49'ers

Forty-Niners limbering up for action drew several thousand spectators to the main field of St. Mary's college this week.

The arrival of the pro-football rookies over the weekend and the veterans on Wednesday was a reminder that the fall is approaching fast.

Fast also describes some of the new material which Assistant Coach Red Hickey is testing.

L. C. Joyner, who comes from East Contra Costa Junior college, has been timed at 5.6 seconds for 50 yards, with full gear, and after a hard workout. He may become a halfback or end.

Matt Hazeltine, a linebacker for the club last year, and a UC All-American, has also shown a lot of speed in bidding for the fullback slot.

Hazeltine has told his coaches that he can make the switch, though he hasn't played fullback since high school.

A running drill set up by Hickey showed to best advantage Verl Lillywhite, who recently finished four years with the Navy, and Paul Goad, from Abilene Christian.

The ball got flipped plenty of times in early workouts, but a few muffs indicate there is good coordination between quarterbacks Joe Arenas, Maury Duncan and Jerry Gustafson, and centers, Ed Beatty, George Morris and Leo Rucka.

The first scrimmage on Wednesday had only a few leftouts due to injuries, and gave coaches plenty of thoughts on what to do before the season starts.

Coach of the 49'ers is Frankie Albert. Liaison between the team and the schools, which is offering its facilities to the visitors is Coach Jim Weaver, St. Mary's athletic director.

Trout Fishing For Handicapped Boys is Planned

On Wednesday many physically handicapped Contra Costa youngsters between the ages of 6 and 15 will participate in several hours of trout fishing at Tilden Park, a trout fry and picnic at Indian Camp and a miniature train ride.

This will all be sponsored by the Contra Costa Easter Seal Society.

Anyone interested and who does not receive an application should contact the Easter Seal Society, 1372 Main Street, Walnut Creek, YE 4-0782.

Fashions, Water Show, to Light Country Club 'Rush'

A "rushing party" for prospective members of the new Moraga Valley Country Club has been arranged for the afternoon of Sunday, August 12.

The gala affair, to be held at the site of the new club, now the Carroll Ranch at Rheem Center, will include an Indian Summer Fashion Show and Aquacade.

While some invitations have been mailed out, all others interested in joining this non-profit organization are cordially invited to attend the event, the directors emphasized.

The new Moraga Valley Country Club will feature sport, recreation and relaxation for every member of the family, with special attention paid to youngsters, from teenagers to toddlers.

Plans are now being drawn for a fine new clubhouse. In addition to the present large swimming pool, two other pools will be built, as well as a "pitch-and-putt" golf course, tennis courts and bowling greens, with actual opening of the new club set for next Spring.

However, quite a number of families have signed up already and membership will be limited, the directors said. Fees are $100 entrance and $10 registration, with dues set at $12.50 a month, but these dues are not payable until the club is actually in operation.

For the August 12 affair, Al Kalunki's renowned Naiads will go through their water ballet and pool routines. Coached by Betty Brandlein, the swimmers are:

Marcia Blizt, Loris Cortezzo, Sharon Dean, Nancy Millett, Susan Peare, Gail St. John, Jean Krauskopf, Sylvia Hernandez and Diane Beach.

Mrs. Mary Dorr, of radio and TV fame, will act as commentator, Mrs. Andy Catherall is in charge of makeup and W. McElhinney is hair stylist. Music will be provided by Thatcher's Record Shop.

They will offer a Hawaiian ensemble for four; a solo, "Off Shore"; a duet, "Theme from the Proud Ones": a solo, "Love of Genevieve."

The members of the swim group are East Bay girls aged from 12 to 15 years and include Judy Baumann, Orinda, Mary and Betty Casady of Walnut Creek and Marilyn Jamison and Judy Laity of Lafayette.

Enjoyment of the ballet presentation will be possible for guests without their leaving the terraces or balconies of the clubhouse which overlooks the graceful oval pool.

Golfing members of the new Reliez Valley club will be able to see for the first time the future 18 hole golf course actually staked out for construction on the 150 acres of club property.

A hiking expedition is not completely necessary, however, since the layout of the course will also be available in the "pro" shop of the club tomorrow together with other pertinent club information.

"GOOD LUCK" is wished newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. John Underwood Sabin by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Andrew Racine of Lafayette. The couple was married recently in the garden of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schneider of Lafayette. The former Carol Louise Racine and her husband will reside in Orinda.
